Campus News Thursday evening 10 55 Oct 19

The College Relief Committee is sponsoring the showing of an exciting and artistically fine motion picture tomorrow and Saturday evenings. The film is The Fallen Idol, a J. Arthur Rank production directed by Carol Reed. The Fallen Idol is the story of a small boy's worship of an adult and of the change in his bewildered childish mind as he realizes that his idol is the same as other people.

This is the first in a series of movies to be presented by CRC. It will shown Friday and Saturday at 7 30 in Sage Hall.

########

Hillel is sponsoring a dance Saturday evening, October 21 at the Crew House. This is one of the main events in the groups fall schedule. The committee working on the dance is headed by Joan Roskin, 1953. They plan to use a college motif with banners from schools throughout the country and a variety of current football programs as the basis of their decorations.

Several men's colleges will be represented including Yale, Princeton, Harvard, Wesleyan and Amherst. A large attentance is expected and those who wish to go and have not yet contacted Joan Roskin and wish to go, are welcomed Saturday. Refreshments will be served at the dance. Music will be provided by records of top name bands.

########

Every major classification of Bach's Organ masterpieces will be illustrated by Robert Swan, organist of Smith college, at his recital, Sunday evening, October 22, at 8 30 in Sage Hall. The firm of M. Steinert and Sons of Springfield is lending Smith the latest model Hammond organ with a full 32 note pedal board and two 32 foot pitch bass stops, capable of the richest, fullest and most delicate effects.

##########

SMITH COLLEGE
NORTHAMPTON, MASSACHUSETTS

NEWS OFFICE
Tel: 2700 Ext. 434

Thursday, Oct. 19, 1950

SPECIAL NOTICE

The president of the Smith College Alumne Association, Mrs. Hodgkinson, will be wilth us ~~tomorrow night~~ tonight at 9:30 for a personal interview at WCSR. She will be prepared to answer any and all questions on the funtions, plans and accomplishments of the Alumnae Association. Learn about your future tie with Smith and discover just how active a part it plays in the community!